Our Favourite Wedding Blooms

This is a list of our favourite flowers and foliages available by season.

Remember nothing is ever 100% guaranteed. We're dealing with Mother Nature and she can be a bit crazy!

There's so many other blooms beyond this list and we'll handpick the best blooms for your event.

There is always a surprise or two waiting for us at the growers and we also suggest keeping an open mind.

SPRING

As you would expect, springtime is the peak growth time for flowers and most other flowering plants. Part of the reason that spring and summer are so popular for weddings, apart from the gorgeous weather, is the wider availability of flowers. In-season flowers in the spring include:

- Roses
- Tulips
- Ranunculus
- Butterfly ranunculus
- Daffodils
- Daisies
- Orchids
- Anthurium
- Forsythias
- Irises
- Poppies
- Most types of Lilies
- Freesia
- Stocks

SUMMER

Spring and summer flower seasons often blend into one another. Many of the flowers that bloom in the spring will continue to bloom throughout the summer. Flowers that are seasonal in summer typically include:

- Hydrangeas
  - Dahlia
  - Cosmos
  - Roses
  - Zinnias
  - Daisies
  - Peonies (June)
  - Delphiniums
  - Ammi
  - Snapdragons
  - Gladioli
  - Anthuriums
  - Chrysanthemums
  - Orchids
  - Irises
  - Freesias, and many types of Lilies

AUTUMN

Autumn is the time of year that flower bloom cycles start to slow down. If you are getting married in Autumn you will still have plenty of options from which to choose. Seasonal autumn flowers can include:

- Roses
- Carnations
- Chrysanthemums
- Orchids
- Daisies
- Alstroemeria
- Bouvardia
- Hypericum
- Lilies
- Anthuriums

WINTER

Winter is a less common time to get married but if you are choosing it there are plenty of beautiful flowers available. Popular winter flowers include:

- Roses
- Amaryllis
- Carnations
- Chrysanthemums
- Star of Bethlehem
- Anemones
- Orchids
- Anthurium
- Gloriosa
- Hypericum
- Ranunculus
